Mother Belgian or German were dispatched butside, and access to the station was forbidden. This applied to all passengers as well. The military guards occupying parts of the station and environs were ordered to leave their posts and pile their arms. The URNITURE—Highest prices paid only persons allowed on the platform were the stationmaster, his employes appointed to work the the military chief. There was no guard of honor, no manifestation "This clearing of the station takes place at every station through which the train passes, which it does at the maximum regulation speed. At Brussels detrainment took place opposite the Place Rogier, which is a military post since the occupation. "The space in front of the station. which is always forbidden ground to passengers, was occupied by several motor cars. As soon as the Emperor entered his car the small fleet ran swiftly to the Parc Rue Royale, where the Kaiser stayed several hours. "During the presence of the Kalser the officials always display the utmost nervousness in fear of anything tak ing place, and they always breathe a gone. The fact that even the military sigh of relief when their master are obliged to retire and pile their arms seems to suggest a distrust of LEXINGTON LAKEWOOD, N. J.
